 Miss Jennie Carson left last evening for Deadwood, S. D., where she will spend the winter with her brother.

Miss June Miles of Turley's Glen has gone to Henningsford, Neb., where she has secured a position in the city schools.

J. B. Atkins has been elected secretary-treasurer of the Masonic Temple association to succeed E. L. Shugart, resigned.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to E. C. Springer, aged 30, of Iowa City and Edna Allen, aged 24, of Omaha.

Traveling Passenger Agent W. J. Seiner is looking for a new place to live at the local railroad offices yesterday.

Judge J. R. Reed left last night for Santa Fe, N. M., where he will preside over the federal court.

J. C. Bixby, heating and sanitary engineer. Plans and specifications for heating, plumbing and lighting, 202 Main, Council Bluffs.

O. C. Garton, reporter for Judge Thornell of the district court, is in the city yesterday afternoon on his way home to Tabor from Atlantic.

The women of the First Presbyterian church held a very successful and well attended social yesterday afternoon in the church parlors.

City Clerk Phillips has added a typewriter to his office, and is putting in his time learning to master the intricacies of the machine.

Not "how cheap," but "how good" is the question that confronts the individual with a bundle of underwear. You will be pleased at the popular Eagle Laundry, 724 Broadway.

Colonel Baker of the Board of Supervisors is looking for a new life for the county woodyard, the one it now occupies having been engaged for other purposes. The county's woodpile will amount to about 900 cords.

Chief Bixby has had the city electrician put in a private telephone between the city hall and the office over the patrol house. It is intended to save Sergeant Comte the trouble of walking down a flight of stairs when he wishes to communicate with the jailer.

Morris O'Brien and William Barry, the two tramps charged with the theft of a bundle of whips from in front of DeVos's hardware store, admitted their guilt. At the city court yesterday Judge Aylesworth gave them the limit, fining them each $100 and costs. They were committed to the county jail to serve out the term.

W. S. Mayne, referee in bankruptcy, has fixed December 13 as the date for the meeting of the creditors of Grants & Glee, the Walnut firm recently declared bankrupt.

The meeting of the creditors will select a trustee to take charge of the assets of the firm. The German Bank of Walnut, which holds a chattel mortgage on the property, is expected to make a fight to establish the precedence of its mortgage over the bankruptcy proceedings.

J. P. Hess of this city, delegate to the Farmers' National congress, leaves today for Fort Worth, Tex., where the congress opens next Tuesday. As no steps have been taken to secure a room for the delegates, it is doubtful if Mr. Hess will convey an invitation from this city to the congress to hold its session next year in Council Bluffs.

Mr. Hess will accompany his husband on the trip. Mr. Hess received word yesterday that the Iowa delegation to the congress would leave Kansas City for Fort Worth Sunday morning.

Mayor Jennings and the city authorities are throwing bouquets at one another in consequence of the showing so far made this year under the new law regarding appropriations and expenditures of city revenues. Auditor Evans estimates that, including the amount which will be required to complete the fiscal year, which ends March 21 next, the city will come well within the limit in all its funds. It is possible that there may be a surplus left at the close of the year, but it is not expected the balance, if any, will be a very large one.

N. Y. Plumbing company, Tel. 250.

Mr. Sewing, postmaster at Dumfries, presented his family with a nice oak organ, with canopy top, purchased of Bourgeois.

Mrs. Sewing's family consists of a son, a daughter and her nephew. The organ is a piano and her nephew an organ at the same popular music house, 325 Broadway, where the organ stands on top of the building.
